Ideas considered

- Static workout plan templates
- Mobile app with wearable tracking
- AI-generated personalized workout plan web app
- Nutrition and recovery tip assistant

Selected idea

FitBuddy combines a personalized 7-day workout plan, a quick nutrition or recovery tip and feedback-based plan revision in one Generative AI web application. The team prioritized this idea because it demonstrates AI integration, database storage, user input handling and a complete web flow.

Priority criteria

- Usefulness to users
- Generative AI relevance
- Implementation feasibility
- Multiple functional modules
- Demonstration value
